

"Elephant's Ear"
The elephant's ear is a Hawaiian or Polynesian plant with very large, bright green leaves used to give subtropical effect in bedding. The rootstock is planted in well moist soil out of doors or started in a hotbed or a greenhouse and transplanted in the fall. It is slow to start in dampness and is not so hardy in the Pacific Islands as it is in the tropics. It is used for its foliage. The pol of Hawaii being made from it. The plant is called taro.

Store opens at 8 a. m. closes 5 30 p. m. except Saturday 8 to 9 P. M.

During this week which is termed Home Craft Week our Curtain and Drapery Departments will make a special effort to be of service to you. You will also find that our curtains have been specially priced for this event and that it is now possible to re-curtain your home at a remarkably low cost.

How to Select a Curtain

There are three view points in selecting a window covering.

1. Look at the curtain to see how the design fits the decorative scheme of your room.
2. Look through the curtain to make sure it is so transparent as not to obstruct your view—unless, of course, the view is unpleasing.
3. Look at the curtain again, this time against a dark background, to see how it will appear to your neighbors viewing your home from the outside.

Then do one thing more—look at the construction of your curtain to see whether it is merely a woven fabric made by the interbraiding of threads, or Craft Lace having a tied or knotted mesh that won't slip and will retain its form and beauty till actually worn out.

Our stock of curtain materials has been selected with those four requests in mind. It includes a fine assortment of all those fabrics needed for attractive window draping, and an especially splendid showing of the famous Quaker Craft Lace.

Hats That Herald Summer

Crowns of crepe de Chine and brims of fine Milan laden down with fabric flowers, are seen in many of the new Hats for late Spring wear. Grasses, flowers of all sorts and ribbon decorate these Hats and give them an air of youthfulness that expresses the joyousness of the approaching season. Crisp new frocks are enhanced in charm by the addition of such a Hat. In many beautiful summery shades.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By "Skinney"

Young John D. Rockefeller in an address recently to young men holding still to hear him, said they should use great care in picking their wives. In his opinion there are few things as important as that. We do not wish to disagree with Mr. Rockefeller, whose advice no doubt is well intended, but that again raises the question 'do young men pick their wives?' Personally we have always believed that the aforesaid wives did the picking. We are sure that's the custom right here in Clearfield. We actually don't believe that the average young man hereabouts has any more to do with his proposal, so-called, than some young men out in 'Ohyer'. Many a fellow thinks he is doing the proposing when the fact is ma and the girl have already decided they will have him and maneuvered him into the proper corner. It is all over in an instant, the frustrated young man is at a loss to know just what did happen and the wedding bells seal his death warrant.

The biggest piece of news of the week is the report that 'ladies' cars are coming, ha ha! That is to say that fashionable ladies, after many years, are uncovering their cars (but not recovering the shams, the 'skinny things').

It has been a long time since any lady of our acquaintance has had an ear of any kind, big or little, and we have often wondered how they have been able to hear so much.

If there has been any news of any importance going round the neighborhood the ladies have always managed to hear it first, ears or no ears, and have then deflected the gossip to their husbands when the latter comes home to dinner.

We are sorry that the ears again to be uncovered—not because the ladies will hear more, but because the ear is the most intricate feature of the face. We are due to have some surprises when the cars come out of hiding, because some very lovely women will not look as well as usual. But their earrings are coming back a coming to Dame Fashion's device, and there must be something to hang them on and there isn't a man in the world who will consent to be out of style hence the 'come back' of the ear.

"Are there any perfect men?" Briefly and modestly we can answer this question pronounced by an old maid in Bigler and truthfully say the editor of this 'column' is the only perfect man of whom we have any knowledge. But for the purpose of a more general inquiry and an answer to suit the inquiry we request our correspondent to ask any married woman on Clearfield.

The female population of Florida is growing, or increasing so rapidly that some believe it will be like the Governor of the Flower State have begun to openly charge that all roads from everywhere are going to the state and that almost before we can see it all the state and county officials, U. S. Senators, State Senators and members of the Legislature of Florida will be wimmin' be gosh."

Most of us are glad that we lived in the old days when you could kiss a girl and not taste anything but girl.

It is mighty encouraging to note that the great American hen is once more back on a normal basis of production.

We sometimes feel confident that more men would join the church if it had some sort of a secret pass-word and a grip.

Judge Landis might get back at his critics by declaring it's better to take two salaries than it is to accept one you don't earn.

There are two good reasons why a sensible man never lies to his wife. One is he knows it's wrong, and the other is he knows she isn't going to believe him anyhow.

SOUR LOGIC

The views of Mr. Lansing concerning the peace conference may be interesting as a matter of history, but they have little relation to statesmanship or current affairs. As a statesman, Mr. Lansing spoke too late. The battle is over, and it was won without Mr. Lansing's help. When the fight was on between the cohorts of internationalism, Mr. Lansing was a spectator on the sidelines. He was an outspoken advocate of neither side. The more he says now concerning the peace treaty, the more he condemns himself for not expressing his views publicly at the time the issue was a vital one for this government. If the subject calls for any discussion whatever now, it called for vastly more discussion in the days when Mr. Lansing was silent. His activity now condemns him as a slacker then.

TAXING BACHELORS

Bachelors around Clearfield have reason now for climbing on the anxious seat. Wisconsin is preparing a law to tax bachelors, and it is apt to spread as to include every bachelor in every community in the good old U. S. A. Ten dollars annually would be the price levied on those who have failed to take unto themselves a wife, and it would go to the school fund. Still another bill proposed is to tax 'em $100 the first year and increase that at the rate of $100 a year for each succeeding ten years they persisted in remaining single. And this money would be used to erect and maintain a home for maiden ladies of 35 or over who had no visible means of support. Personally, we're not going to express our opinion regarding such legislation. But on top of the present high cost of living maybe the prophet of old who wrote in the good book that it was not well for a man to live alone could see a whole lot farther into the future than some people have credited him with being able to see.

NICARAGUA RESIGNS

Membership in the league having cost Nicaragua $48,000 for one year, she has signified her intention of resigning from the club, and the question now is whether, under Article One of the league covenant she will be permitted to do so. That article provides: "Any member of the league may, after two years' notice of its intention to do so, withdraw from the league, provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of its withdrawal." One of the obligations under the covenant appears to be that Nicaragua is one year in arrears in payment of dues. Will the league let her out before she has paid? Or will she be posted? Then, too, there were many obligations owing to foreign powers by Nicaragua before she joined the league. Are these included in the "international obligations" referred to by Article One? Or is the league without jurisdiction as to a pre-existing debt? At all events Nicaragua can't see $48,000 per annum worth in being a member of the Geneva hunk-a-tonk, so it's "Good-bye girls, I'm through."

Notice to the Clearfield Stockholders of the Jersey Cereal Food Company.

After the yearly dividends of 7 per cent. on the Preferred, and 8 per cent. on the Common stock had been paid, there is still a good surplus left. The Company has enjoyed a big increase in volume of the business during 1920 which necessitated the erection of a large warehouse and machine shop also a new power house which is to house two new 250 horse-power boilers, generators, etc. The production capacity of the plant, has been increased from 2,000 cases per day to 8,000 so that the increased business for 1921 can be taken care of. The popularity of Jersey Corn Flake and Jersey (Roasted Rolled Oats, is growing throughout the country, while the Company has had an enviable record as a dividend payer, it is believed that the stock will be much more profitable in the future on a lower cost of raw materials and increased production.

Messrs. Anderson, Roth and Bloom, of Bloomington avenue, were present and asked for information relative to their petition of a month previous, on new sidewalks and especially what Council intended to do about the walk from the front of the hill to the turn of the road at the top. They represented that several persons had been severely injured from receiving falls. Also asked for several new walks and two new crossings on Bloomington avenue. Matter referred to sidewalk committee for adjustment as soon as possible.

Benjamin Moore, residing on Susquehanna avenue, South Side, made complaint that a gang of boys made it a business of annoying himself and family nightly. He named the youngsters and Burgess Traister informed Council that he would take the complaint up with the Chief of Police.

No report was made by committee in regard to new water contract, held over for several months for revision by the water company. Committee continued, as was also that of the committee on Public Building repairs.

Petitor at last session for lights along the Hartshorn road tabled until a further investigation as to their need could be made by Street and Light Committee.

Work on the D. W. Hile property, ordered by Council at March session, reported as completed and bill rendered to the amount of $15.90 rendered by Street Commissioner Dale.

Burgess Traister authorized to notify Eli Korb and Harvey to build sidewalks along front of their properties on Bloomington ave.

Communication from County Commissioners relative to assistance for road work through South Side, read and ordered filed. Also one from Mr. Westcott on same subject read and placed on record.

Communication from H. & C. telephone company notifying Council that phone rates had been raised from $24 to $36 per year.

George Cadman asked for stone wall in front of his property, near Filbert street run, for side walk purposes. Referred to Sidewalk Committee.

Rev. Cameron, thro Councilman S. P. Dressler, asked for tap in borough sewer leading from the Baptist church. No action.

Burgess Traister instructed to have Chief Police Clark rigidly enforce the ordinance relative to automobilists and truck drivers, using the "cut off" on their machines within the borough limits.

Resignation of Furmen F. Tate, as a Councilman from First Ward, read. Same was tabled until May session.

Question of repairs on Main street came up. Some discussion as to the best method, ended in Street Committee being instructed to go ahead and complete one square on proposed plan and if it worked satisfactorily to do the entire length of the street in the same manner.

Street Commissioner Dale ordered to put men and teams on at once to clean the street from dirt and then use the hose for a thorough cleansing.

A number of new traffic signs having been painted, Street Commissioner Dale was authorized to put them in position, using telephone poles wherever convenient.

The Finance Committee made a report, which will be given latter as it could not be obtained at this hour.

HELPED HER LITTLE GIRL

Children need all their strength for growing. A lingering cold weakens them so that the system is open to attack by more serious sickness. Mrs. Amanda Flint, Route 4, New Philadelphia, O., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my little girl of the worst tickling cough. I had tried many things and found nothing to help until I got Foley's Honey and Tar." Gives immediate relief from distressing, racking, retarding coughs.
